TO ADVOCATE NEWPORT NEWS YARD.

The following officers of St. Mary's of the Immaculate Conception Council No. 471, Catholic Benevolent Legion, have been elected for the ensuing term President, John P. Kevill; Vice-President, John F. Lawler; Orator, M. Glennan; Secretary, M. J. Murphy: Collecter, John A. Bascher; Treasurer, James W. Long; Chaplain, Rev. John Doherty; Marshal, J. V. An An Act of Justice They Want the Contracts for the Two New Battleships to Go to the Lowest Bidder for the Work-Senators and Rep rescutatives Called Upon.

The Board of Directors of the Business Men's Association held a meeting last night and appointed a committee to prepare resolutions asking the Secretary of the Navy to see that no action detrimental to the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company be taken in the matter of awarding the contracts for the two new battleships bid for a few days ago. It will be remembered that the Newport News Company was the lowest bidders by hundreds of thousands of dollars and the business men of Norfolk will make every effort to have the contracts awarded to that company. The Senators and Representatives in Congress will be asked to call upon the Secretary of the Navy and urge, as an act of justice, that the vessels be built here upon the plans submitted by the Government. The resolutions will be forwarded to Washington by Col. E. M. Henry, President of the Association, as soon as the committee reports.

The musical, literary and dramatic entertainment to be given by the pupils of St Mary's Male Academy at the Academy of Music next Wednesday night promises to be a very splendid affair. The programme, which is very elaborate, will include choruses, solos, recitations, club swinging, fancy zonave drill and a drum solo by the boys' drum corps, accompanied by the orchestra. The drama, entitled "Benedict Arnold's Treason," will be presented by some of our well-knwon amateur histrionics. The entertainment is for the benefit of the cadets and drum corps, and should receive the hearty support of the people of Norfolk, Help the little soldiers. Men's self-acting rubbers.

THE TRANSPORTATION FIGHT. STRAYED OR STOLEN-One 12-year-old The Scaboard Air Line and Southern' 1.20 pound, long, brown, wagon mule, with long hair, which was rubbed off on sides and shoulders. Reward if returned to owner, M. M. JONES, des-it Everett's, Va.

The last issue of the Claremont Henald contains the following, which will be of interest in this section: "It has been common rumor, since The Herald's announcement of the fact that the Seaboard Air Line would run a direct line of steamers from Richmond to Bailtmore, that the Southern Railway, its closest rival, would also ply the James, investigation into the matter tells the following stery:

"When the Southern Railway announced its intention of running a line from Portsmouth to Bailtmore, the Bay Line, controlled by the Seaboard Air Line, made up its mind to cut off the Southern's through traffle by running up the James, and from Richmond to Bailtmore three times a week.

"The Southern now threatens, in the event that the Seaboard Air Line cuts rates between the two cities mentioned, to ply the James also, and, in connection with its York River Line, to belt the peninsula.

"The Southern Railway is, it is said, backed up by a contract with the Clydes and should it decide to put steamers on the river between Richmond and Bailtmore, the Clyde Line from Richmond to Philadelphia will be discontinued, and the business now controlled by it transferred to the Southern.

"The fight is evidently on, and interesting developments may be anticipated." Warfare.

Fire Bepartment Notes.

A new coat of paint has been given the interior woodwork on Chilef Ryan's office, at No. 1 engine-house.

Driver D. C. Bell was taken sick yesterday and was sent home.

Chief Ryan is in hopes of establishing a firemen's relief fund in the near future, so that members of the department, when sick, shall be paid for the time lost. It is his idea to have a fund set aside for this purpose, to which a portion of the rewards paid to firemen shall go, together with all fines imposed on members of the department for yiolation of any of the regulations, Norfelk is one of the few paid department eities which has no such fund.

Clearance Sale of the Johnston China Company.

Clearance Sale of the Johnston China Company.

In The Virginian to-day in their advertisement, the Johnston China Company, of Gramby street, announce a clear ame sale of their over stock at a sacrifice. That people may understand the stillicent reason for this it is proper to say that the majority of their stock is imperted, and that it has therefore to be bought some six months ahead of their reeds. This method of doing businers is disadvantageous to the retailer, but he cannot do otherwise. If the season is a presperous one all is well, but if money is searce there is nothing for the retailer to do but to either carry his holiday goods for a year or cut his way out 4t a time when the goods can be sold by sacrificing. The Johnston China Company has chosen the latter method and asks The Virginian to state the truth frankly, and the renson for the sale. It is a superb stock, that is offered, such a stock as is rarely shown by one house, and there is little doubt that it will find buyers at the pricos advertised: In their window is exhibited the set of China to be given to the guesser of the number of seeds in the pumpkin. Every buyer of one dollar's worth being entitled to a guess, it is an exquisite set and some one will get a rayal gift. Everybody in Norfolk knows that the Johnston Company fulfill every promise and that the character of the house as of the stock is of the highest.

Mrs. Raphel's stock of fine shoes at cost to close up business to retire. Lease expires December 24th and stock must be sold quick. 116 Church street, corner Plume street.
